Last Man Standing (22 x 1 hr)

Drama

Last Man Standing follows the odyssey of Adam, Cameron and Bruno; their quest to get inside the head of the modern woman, find out where they went wrong in previous relationships and what they're going to do right next time.

We follow their inevitable disasters and the licking of wounds that follow. Adam (Rodger Corser), Cameron (Matt Passmore) and Bruno (Travis McMahon) will keep getting back in the ring and giving it another crack, despite one lurching misadventure after the next.

Australian Pay TV rights available with Verve
Available March 2006

Queen Kat, Carmel & St Jude (2 x 2 hrs or 4 x 1 hr)

Drama – Mini Series - Womens

Friendship courage and survival. Queen Kat, Carmel & St Jude is about being young and leaving home for the first time. About the lust for experience and all the passion and fear that can entail. Half children, half adults, Carmel, Jude and Kat set out to test the waters – and along the way they falter, they fail, they misbehave and they triumph. But the greatest surprise is how they find each other and how this discovery opens their own closed worlds.

Through My Eyes (2 x 2 hrs)

Drama – Mini-Series

A story that fascinated Australians like no other event, Through My Eyes tells the captivating, true story of Lindy Chamberlain – an ordinary mother who found herself accused, then convicted of the murder of her baby daughter Azaria at Uluru in 1980.

Featuring never before revealed information, Through My Eyes is a frightening, tragic tale told through the eyes of others at the campsite, the rangers at the Rock, the police, the judiciary, a juror and finally through Lindy herself.

This two-part mini-series was filmed on location (the first film drama permitted to shoot at Uluru since the handover) and features an all-star cast incl. Miranda Otto as Lindy Chamberlain, Craig McLachlan as her husband Michael and Peter O'Brien as prosecutor Ian Barker QC
