Below The Belt – South Africa (13 x ½ hr)

Hosted by the "world famous" Baroness Coral von Reefenhausen, Below the Belt is a cheeky show that takes an irreverent, fun, and risqué look at sex, tourism and alternative culture in South Africa. As a veritable fish out of water our Baroness tackles subjects including the singles scene, nudity, pornography, S&M, swinging, prostitution, gay nightlife, adult tourism and other topics of interest 'hidden' in the underworlds and nightlife of greater Johannesburg and Cape Town. Its part chat, part expose – made all the more unique by the very memorable Baroness. The media response to Below the Belt when it aired in 2003 on SABC 3 (a high AB audience) was phenomenal... it was one of their highest rating shows ever...

Erotic Star (8 x ½ hr plus 1 x 1 hr best of)Reality – Entertainment – Women's - Men's

The search for Australia's most sensuous performer has begun with this high class reality series featuring 11 would be dance stars competing in the areas of: Sensuality, Athleticism, Grace and Personality.

"Erotica, Exotica, Burlesque, Striptease – call it by what ever name, but the nature of sensual dance and performance has always been about one thing – an expression of sexual power, freedom and art".

Based on the classic European genre of burlesque and combining fashion, style and sensuality, this high class reality series was inspired by the hugely popular pole dancing trend. Each episode takes a group of would be dance stars, through a grueling series of challenges, from performance skills, pole dancing ability and presentation, to fashion sense, stamina and of course, sensuality.

Judged by a celebrity panel over an 8 episode period, we follow a group of 11 would-be dance stars to find the most sensuous all-round performer. From a rigorous set of specific tasks chosen to showcase and define each contestant's abilities in: Sensuality, Athleticism, Grace, Interpretation of Music (for dance) and ultimately Personality – which is the most sensual gift of all – only one will be crowned as this generation's Erotic Star.

Aside from the obvious male appeal, Erotic Star is produced with a very definite female market in mind. The series reflects the growing number of young women interested in dance for fitness and having a greater confidence in their own body and sex appeal.

The 20th century placed the fully nude body into 'high art' theatre dance — and moved exotic dance towards the mainstream. Nudity in exotic dance communicates messages of freedom, independence, gender equality and acceptance of the body. As does the Erotic Star series – enjoy!

Making Johnny – Burning Man (1 x 1hr)Art – Music – Culture – Entertainment

Art, Music, Freedom, Circus, Ritual and Spectacle – a Desert.

A journey to the heat of one of the most unique festivals on the planet – The Burning Man Festival – an art event and temporary community based on radical self-expression and self-reliance, held annually in the Black Rock Desert, Nevada.

In recent years, the festival has become the epicenter of an as yet unnamed art movement and platform for a new wave of artists who's works blossom on the playa of the remote desert for one week and then are no more.

MAKING JOHNNY follows two New York artists and their crew as they confront the challenges of designing, transporting and constructing a giant art installation 'Johnny' in this most unique of settings.

In a place where there are no rules and where anything goes MAKING JOHNNY explores the nature of creativity and the fascinating, revealing and sometimes radically divergent perceptions artists can have from the audience for whom the work has been created.

Once In a Lifetime (12 x ½ hrs)

Fishing – Mens - Entertainment

This pristine fishery in the Seychelles is what most anglers dream about; join us as we follow a variety of anglers on what may be a "Once in a Lifetime" opportunity

A group of professional and recreational fishermen explore and catch numerous predatory species on the flats along the shoreline and by tender boat in the remote outer atolls of the Seychelles. The fishing is epic but you will also feel the tranquility and soak up the sheer beauty of this untouched paradise.

Some of the rarest fish in the world are landed during the Fly fishing shows for instance the successful hook up and landing of the illusive Milkfish by professional guide Paul Boyers on an algae fly designed by Arno Mathee, a veteran and pioneer in these parts. History is made with the first ever footage filmed in the Seychelles of the successful targeting and landing of a Bump head Parrot fish on fly. The fly fishing crew also hook into a myriad of other species such as Record Giant Travelly, Bonefish, Trigger Fish, Bohar Snapper, Spangled Emperor, and Blue Fin Trevally, and in Manda Bay in Kenya where the pros demonstrate the art of hooking and landing five Sailfish

The spin fishermen use tender boats as a floating platform to hunt the fish. Record size Giant Travelly, Barracuda, Green Job fish, Dog Tooth Tuna and Rockod attack the plugs with vigour. Excitement in paradise.

The entire series is shot from above and below the water which provides the viewer with the anglers and the fish's perspective of the fight.

Seven Girls a Week – A Photo Journal (6 x ½ hrs)

Entertainment – Reality – Womens – Mens

Nick Hudson, stylish fashion photographer has a problem... beautiful girls are driving him crazy day and night. They haunt his dreams and his every waking thought, because for Nick girls = money and he needs every dollar he can get.

Seven girls a week, gives us a unique perspective into the world of fashion photography by following the story of a young photographer who has sold up everything and moved half way around the world to make his mark in the Manhattan fashion epi-centre. Faced with the stress of living in one of the most expensive cities in the world, Nick figures he has to shoot seven girls a week to make enough money to get by and hopefully every so often one girl will shine brightly enough to expand his own portfolio.

Now seven beautiful girls a week sounds like a dream job but expectations are high and Nick must contend with an odd mix of the inexperienced, the overweight, the underweight, the clueless and the plain ugly! Added to this Nick has to hustle up enough clothes to give each girl distinctive looks that will be deemed fashionable enough to make the cut with the tough as nails agency bookers. Get the look wrong and no more girls. No more girls = no money. The pressure is on.

Shot in an intimate and fast paced, 'fly on the wall' style mixed with animated still frame montages, Seven Girls a Week gives the viewer a unique inside look at a life most only dream of.
