

VERVE ENTERTAINMENT INTERNATIONAL COMEDY CATALOGUE...

Below the Belt – Cape Town (1 x 1 hr)

Again we meet our beloved Baroness as she presents Cape Town with all its delights. A true international episode presents a pilot for an entire international series.

The Baroness herself comments "Love me or Loathe me, the word indifferent will not enter your vocabulary". The key to Below the Belt is its irreverent attitude to its subject matter. It's satirical, it's funny, it's outrageous and most of all damn entertaining – Below the Belt is guaranteed to make for riveting viewing!

Below The Belt – South Africa (13 x ½ hr)

Hosted by the "world famous" Baroness Coral von Reefenhausen, Below the Belt is a cheeky show that takes an irreverent, fun, and risqué look at sex, tourism and alternative culture in South Africa. As a veritable fish out of water our Baroness tackles subjects including the singles scene, nudity, pornography, S&M, swinging, prostitution, gay nightlife, adult tourism and other topics of interest 'hidden' in the underworlds and nightlife of greater Johannesburg and Cape Town. Its part chat, part expose – made all the more unique by the very memorable Baroness. The media response to Below the Belt when it aired in 2003 on SABC 3 (a high AB audience) was phenomenal... it was one of their highest rating shows ever...

Blokesworld (27 x ½ hr)

Blokesworld is politically incorrect, raunchy, light entertainment which investigates the world of the Aussie Bloke and rediscovers the joys of a roaring V8 engine, a punt on the greyhounds, the thrills of dirt bike riding, the glory of a long cold beer and an appreciation of the talents of sexy exotic dancers. Blokesworld offers handy hints on how a bloke can re-immense himself into a culture more reminiscent of the sporting 70's than the metro-sexual infested new millennium.

Sam Mac's Single Bed (4 x ½ hr)

The single-most hilarious sketch show ever broadcast from the bedroom of a nonsensical jokester

Who needs flashy sets and imported b-grade celebrities? Just take one comedian, his bedroom, a camera, and the unsuspecting citizens on the street and you have one of the funniest, freshest new comedies to hit the screen.

Comedy – Youth

From the dexterous mind of comedian Sam Macmillan comes 'Sam Mac's Single Bed', the single-most hilarious sketch show proving you don't need friends in high places, all you need is friends with video cameras and a quirky sense of humour. Shot completely guerrilla style, the show takes viewers from comedian Sam Macmillan's bedroom (complete with studio audience and band), out onto the streets for vox-pops and pranks. It incorporates a number of regular skits, including the animated "Roller Cops" and a spoof of the TV show "24". The show's raw, quirky style will appeal to a younger audience and anyone tired of formulaic, scripted comedy.

If you are going to share a single bed with anyone this year, make sure it's Sam Mac!

Wilfred (8 x ½ hr)

Comedy – Youth

91% of dog owners report feeling 'very close' to their pet and consider them an integral member of the family unit.....

43% celebrate their dog's birthday...

95% pat, hug, and play with their dog daily....

5% don't.....

Totally barking mad, WILFRED – an enigmatic comedy series about a woman, her new boyfriend and her old dog.

WILFRED is a tale of love, lust, anxiety, fear, frustration, humiliation, and occasional happiness. And that's from the dog's perspective.... The ultimate flawed character ... we are charmed by Wilfred's arrogance, self-righteousness, his falsehoods and misguided passions. Insecure and manipulative, he will stop at nothing to win the love and affection he desires. How hard can it be to make friends with a dog?? That depends on the situation.... And the dog.....
